

Lucinda Dean, M.S., CCC/SLP
University of Texas at Dallas
2895 Facilities Way
Richardson, Texas 75080
972-883-3654
Lucinda.dean@utdallas.edu

Academic Rank: Professor of Practice

CCC Status: SLP/Active

Tenure track: No

Full-time in accredited program: Yes

Date Employed: June 2004

Tenured: No Date: NA

1. Degree	Institution	Year	Major
M.S.	University of Texas at Dallas	1988	Communication Disorders
B.S.	University of Northern Colorado	1986	Communication Disorders

2. A. Presentations:

Dean, Lucinda (February 2021) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Motor Speech Disorders: Conference presented to Region XI

Dean, Lucinda (October 2020) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Motor Speech Disorders: Conference provided to Region XII

Dean, Lucinda (February 2020) Evaluation and Treatment of Sensory Based Feeding Disorders: Conference provided to professionals at Early Childhood Intervention Center at Life Path Systems

Dean, Lucinda (July 2015) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Motor Speech Disorders: Region XI

Dean, Lucinda (May 2015) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Dysphagia: Region XI

Dean, Lucinda (July 2014) Providing Dysphagia Evaluation and Intervention in the Public School Setting; Presented to Ft. Worth ISD.

Dean, Lucinda (December 2012) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Dysphagia – Presented at Region XI in Ft. Worth, Texas

Dean, Lucinda (July 2011) Evaluation and Treatment of Pediatric Motor Speech Disorders and Pediatric Sensory Based Feeding Disorders – Presented at the Voice of the Mountain conference by Region XIX in El Paso, Texas

Dean, Lucinda (April 2010) Evaluation and Treatment of Dysfunctional and Sensory Based Feeding Disorders - Presented to the professional staff of Sherman Independent School District

Dean, Lucinda (August 2009) Evaluation and Treatment of Dysfunctional and Sensory Based Feeding Disorders - Presented to the professional staff of Sherman Independent School District

Dean, Lucinda (April 2009) Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Evaluation and Treatment – Presented to community professions at Region X

Dean, Lucinda (March, 2009) Evaluation and Treatment of Dysfunctional and Sensory Based Feeding Disorders - Presented to the professional staff of Life Path Systems Early Childhood Intervention in Frisco, Texas, March, 2009

Dean, Lucinda (October 2008) Evaluation and Treatment of Sensory Based Feeding Disorders – Presented to speech language pathologist and occupational therapist at Life Care ECI

Dean, Lucinda (February 2008) Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Evaluation and Treatment - Presented at 2008 TSHA Convention

Dean, Lucinda (January 2007) The Role of Oral Motor Treatment with Feeding/Swallowing and Articulation Disorders in the Public School Setting - Presented to parent and special education staff of Plano Independent School District, Plano, Texas, 2007.

Dean, Lucinda (November 2006) The Role of Oral Motor Exercises in Articulation and Dysphagia Treatment in the Public School Setting. Presented to parents/teachers of the Plano Independent School District.

Dean, Lucinda (October 2005) The UTD Adult Social Communication Group. Presented to the Dallas/Ft. Worth Aphasiology Association, Dallas, Texas.

Dean, Lucinda (June 2005) Autism Spectrum Programs at UTD. Presentation provided at the Autism Summit Conference.

Dean, Lucinda (January 2004) PISD Dysphagia Program. Presentation for the Region X directors of special education and /or speech language pathology departments.

Dean, Lucinda (April 2003) Oral Motor Speech Disorders: Evaluation and Treatment. Presentation at the Texas Speech- Language-Hearing Association Convention.

Dean, Lucinda (February 2002) Oral Motor Speech Disorders: Evaluation and Treatment. Presentation for the Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologist of North Dallas.

Dean, Lucinda (June 2001) Pediatric Feeding Disorders. Conference for the Huntsville Independent School District.

Dean, Lucinda (June 2001) Pediatric Feeding Disorders. Conference for the Leander Independent School District.

B. Clinical service delivery/Academic and Clinical Advising:

June 2004-present: Professor of Practice in the Speech, Language, and Hearing Department at the University of Texas at Dallas

- Direct program for Communication and Learning Program: Evaluation and treatment of adults with communication disorders
- Direct program for Pediatric Modified Barium Swallow Study Clinic: Conduct and interpret modified barium swallow studies on children ages birth – 21 years
- Provide semester clinical and academic advising to UTD Graduate students in the COMD program (advise about 20-25 students per semester)

August 2016-present

Consult speech language pathologist at the Baylor Frisco Outpatient Day Neuro Program: evaluate and treat adults with communication disorders and supervise graduate students from UTD

January 2015-present

Consult speech language pathologist at the Texas Health Plano Pediatric Imaging Center: evaluate children with dysphagia with Modified Barium swallow studies and supervise graduate students from UTD.

December 2007-Present

Contract SLP for Early Childhood Intervention Life Path Systems and the Warren Center. Evaluate and treated children with dysphagia and communication disorders ages birth-three. Provided ongoing education to families and maintain professional relationships to encourage/train ECI Staff on UTD student supervision. Able to generate additional graduate student internship placements for UTD students.

August 2005- May 2007

PRN speech language pathologist at Baylor Garland Medical Center: evaluated and treatment adults with communication and swallowing disorders

August 2006-May 2007

Contract consultant for pediatric Dysphagia evaluation and treatment for the Plano Independent School District

March 2000-June 2004

Speech Language Pathologist for the Plano Independent School District
Dysphagia and Apraxia specialist for the Plano Independent School District
West Cluster Team Leader for the speech language pathologists in the Plano Independent School District (2003-2004 school year)

October 1993-March 2000

Speech Language Pathologist at Medical City Dallas Hospital
Chief of Speech Language Pathology Services at Medical City Dallas Hospital (November 1993-July 1995)
Manager and Interim Director of the Rehabilitation Services Department at Medical City Dallas Hospital (July 1995 – November 1999)

June 1992-September 1993

Speech Language Pathologist at HealthTech Rehabilitation Company

June 1988- May 1992

Speech Language Pathologist at Baylor University Medical Center

C. Clinical Supervision:

- Supervising students in the Communication and Learning Program for the University of Texas at Dallas. This program provides evaluation and treatment services to adults with neurogenic communication disorders.
- Supervising students participating in Modified Barium Swallow Studies at the Plano Pediatric Imaging. This practicum focuses on outpatient pediatric patients with dysphagia. Students have an opportunity to conduct parent interviews, participate in a Modified Barium Swallow Study, interpret and document Modified Barium Swallow Studies.

D. Continuing education:

TSHA Annual Convention 2022

ASHA Learning Pass webinars: 2022:

- Feeding and Swallowing Assessments in the School Setting
- Ethically and Legally Defensible Speech Language Services in Public Schools
- InSPire: Creating Rich Communicative Environments for Aphasia Intervention
- Best Practices for Assessment and Treatment of Speech Development in Early intervention
- Diagnosing Autism Spectrum Disorder: The SLP's Role

Baylor Live Webinar: Dr. Lynne Tukstra presented Cognitive Impairment Evaluation and Treatment in October and November of 2021

Bruton Feeding Disorders Conference in November of 2020

ASHA webinars in June of 2020

Supervising training module through ASHA, August 2019

TSHA conference, February, 2018

ASHA Medicare documentation in the University setting webinar, February 2019

ASHA convention 2018 in Boston

ASHA convention 2017 in Los Angeles

UTD Callier Bruton conference for Dysphagia in April of 2016

Dysphagia Research Conference in February 2016

Texas Speech Language Hearing Association 2015 Convention

ASHA online 2015 courses regarding Public School Methods in Ethics and Core Curriculum Standards

Pediatric Education of Dysphagia Issues, April 2014

Callier Bruton Conference, September 2013

ASHA Conference, November 2012

ASHA Conference, November 2011

Recent evaluation and treatment procedures in Traumatic Brain Injury, Rehab Institute of Chicago, May 2011

Childhood apraxia of Speech conference at Callier Center, April, 2010

ASHA conference, November, 2009

Vital stimulation conference, December 2008

TSHA convention, February 2008

Aphasia Treatment: Examining the Evidence, November 2005

Managing Executive and Memory Disorders in Traumatic Brain Injury, November 2005
 Treatment of Motor Speech Disorders in Children: Dilemmas and Solutions, November 2005
 Teaching Student Clinicians to Think Like Professional Clinicians, November 2005
 Implications for School Services Under IDEA 2004 Implementation, November 2005
 Oral/Pharyngeal/Laryngeal Motor Exercises for Swallowing: Controversial Subject, November 2005
 2005 ASHA Health Care Conference; Pediatric Dysphagia, February, 2005
 Weaning Children from Gastrostomy Tubes, April, 2004
 Families with Disabilities, February, 2004
 Phonological Update, November 2003
 Developing Communication Routines for Students with Significant Needs, October, 2003
 Communication Assessment for Students with Autism, August, 2003
 Communication Assessment for Students with Significant Needs, August 2003
 Augmentative and Alternative Communication with Pediatric Populations, February, 2003
 Eligibility Evaluation for Language, October, 2002
 Picture Exchange Communication System, September, 2002
 Eligibility Evaluation for Articulation and Language, August, 2002
 Strategies for Children who Stutter, March 2002
 Making Meaning: Literacy Strategies for Students with Communication Disabilities, February, 2002
 Bilingual/Biculture Concerns for Speech Language Pathologists, October, 2001
 Implementing Social Scripts for Children, April, 2001
 Oral Motor Strategies and Articulation Therapies, November 2000

E. Service (professional, community):

Member of the American Speech Language Hearing Association – March 1989 to present
 Member of the Texas Speech Language and Hearing Association – February 2004 to present
 Member of the Texas Speech Language and Hearing Association Dysphagia Task Force Committee – April 2021 to present
 Member of the 2005-2006 TSHA Ethics Committee
 Member of the Speech Language Pathologists and Audiologists Near Dallas – 2002 to 2003

F. Courses taught or teaching:

University of Texas at Dallas
 COMD 6320 Motor Speech Disorders, Spring 2004 to present
 COMD 6378 Neurogenic Communication Disorders II, Spring 2004 to present
 COMD 7303 Introduction to Dysphagia, Summer 2000 to present
 COMD 7301 Public School Methods, Fall 2004 to present
 COMD 7V91 Infant Development, Fall 1998 to Fall 1999
 COMD 6330-242 Clinical Practicum

G. Courses currently teaching:

COMD 6320 Motor Speech Disorders
 COMD 6378 Neurogenic Communication Disorders II
 COMD 7303 Introduction to Dysphagia
 COMD 7301 Public School Methods
 COMD 7V98-108 Independent study: Childhood Apraxia of Speech

COMD 7V98-118: Independent study: Dysphagia in the Public Schools
COMD 7V98-218: Independent study: Pediatric TBI
COMD 6330-242 Clinical Practicum
COMD 7V98 – Independent Study in Supervision/Administration through the CLP program