

Level up your retirement planning and financial wellness!

Attend a virtual seminar for all UT employees.

Are you a financial wizard? Don't know a stock from a bond? No matter your expertise, campus, or UT retirement plan provider, these seminars are for you.

It's time to take your financial health to the next level. Join your Lincoln representatives for these topics:

- Market volatility: It's easy to feel anxious when the market drops. Learn how to manage stock market volatility with confidence and stay the course to help keep your savings on track.
- Taking income from your retirement plan: We all know it's important to save, save, and save more. But what about withdrawing money in retirement? Learn strategies for using your savings and how to help make it last.
- The single saver's financial checklist: When you're single, you're in the driver's seat for financial decisions and responsibilities. Learn financial considerations just for singles to keep in mind and ways to handle them.

Don't miss out!

It's easy to attend. Use the links to register for the market volatility seminar and save the other two to your calendar.
